Falcons Journey To Ada To Hang 49-43 Defeat On Ohio Northern Cage Quintet

Late Desperate Rally By Bears Unable To Overcome Big Early Lead of Falcons

Five Teams Vie In Third Round Of All-College Tourney

SEMI-FINALS NEXT WEEK

The third round of the all-college debate tournament is slated for tomorrow night, Feb. 10, at 7:00 p. m. in the Library. Five teams are still in the running, four having been eliminated last Thursday in the second round. Four pairs are scheduled for the duel of wits tomorrow, the fifth team drawing a bye. The teams are matched in the formal argument as follows:

Gatchell & Rohrbaugh (A) vs Frank & Shanley (N).

Highfield & Lilley (A) vs Habenstein & Higham (N).

We are picking Frank & Shanley to controvert the question of the N. L. B. and come through to compete in the semi-finals. Highfield and Lilley, will probably take the second match. The first debate will be held in 302-L; the second in 303, also in the Library. Prof. Carmichael stated that there will be plenty of room for audiences in both rooms.

Eight teams competed in the second round, Feb. 3. The italics indicate the winners of the following matches:

Ault & Woodworth vs Peters & Acocks

Gatchell & Rohrbaugh vs Meyers & Musser

Habenstein & Higham vs Wirth & Schutzberg*

Frank & Shanley vs Shine & Glover

* Schutzberg replaced Ettinger

The two teams winning tomorrow will compete in the semi-finals with the team of Ault & Woodworth who drew the bye. No definite date has been set for this round.

QUILL TYPE HEARS OFFENHAUER ON ECONOMICS

Dr. Offenbauer, President of the University, addressed the Quill Type members at their regular meeting on Feb. 2.

He talked on decrease in population and its effect on the present economic situation. He told of how the automobile brought the country out of its last serious depression and said that air-conditioning had been suggested as a means of bringing the country out of the present depression.

Preceding the talk Mr. Squire, retiring president, administered the oath of office to the new officers after which the new officers took charge of the meeting.

BISHOP TAKES SCORING HONORS WITH 13 POINTS

The B. G. Falcon swooped into Polar Bear territory last night and winged its way home with a 49 to 43 victory scored over Ohio Northern's cage team in a game played at Ohio Northern's gym in Ada. Though the final score was somewhat close it didn't indicate the superiority of the Bee Gee invaders over their hosts for, though they played below their usual standard, the Falcons were, during most of the fracas, about 15 points better than the black and orange.

A crowd of about 700, many of them loyal Falcon rooters, saw Bee Gee open the contest with seven points before their foe could get started, and then saw them steadily increase their lead until late in the game when the Bears attempted a futile rally.

At the half the score stood 25 to 10 for the locals. The orange held about the same margin until about eight minutes to play. Then Northern decided to take advantage of Cooper, Cordisco, and Zechman's absence due to personals, and came to life to steadily creep up on them. They dumped in about 14 points while the Falcons were netting around 3, but the early lead set up by B. G. was too great to

STUDENT GROUP TO UNDERTAKE CIVIC RESEARCH

Recently, the University Civic Research League announced its inauguration as a new campus organization. Designed primarily for Political Science students, the organization intends to function as a committee to investigate campus problems and to report them, together with possible solutions, to the Student Council for action. Provision is also made in its Constitution for meetings to be devoted to a discussion of current international situations.

Membership is limited to twenty-five and only sophomores, juniors and seniors are eligible who have a general scholastic average of 2.5 points

The faculty and student body of Bowling Green wish to extend their sincerest sympathy to Richard Hagemeyer whose mother, Mrs. Sophia Hagemeyer, of Pemberville, died last Saturday, Feb. 5, 1938.

Non-Compulsory Chapel To Be Retained

Assigned Seats Waived In New Auditorium

Dr. Offenbauer stated late yesterday that attendance will not be taken at assembly in the new auditorium, now nearing completion. Consequently assigned seats will be unnecessary—but upperclassmen may have something to say about seating the freshmen in the balcony.

Dr. Offenbauer stated that he "hoped to avoid making attendance compulsory." This may have to be done, however, if student attendance falls off too precipitously. The president stated his view with several reasons;—the necessary delay and waste of time in checking, and the complicated record it would produce loomed as high barriers for compulsory attendance.

Cook also stated that THE KEY was rapidly materializing. The printing contract, which was awarded to the Defiance Printing and Engraving Co., was signed Feb. 1, 1938. The staff was well satisfied in the landed bid. Rivalry among three companies enabled the selection of the bid of minimum cost and the maximum amount of space.

The Paramount Co., judging the beauty contest, is now producing "College Swing" its annual picture, which is directed by Mr. Walsh.

Dr. R. Sockman Will Speak at Chapel Feb. 16

To Be First Meeting Of Year In Auditorium

Ralph W. Sockman, minister of the Church of Christ in New York City since 1917 will address the student body at ten o'clock Feb. 16 at chapel which probably will be held in the new auditorium. This international lecturer, a native of Ohio, is well known as an author and has degrees from many institutions of learning.

He was born at Mt. Union, Ohio, in 1889, and has many relatives in this state.

Dr. Sockman received his B. A. degree in 1911 and M. A. in 1913, both from Ohio Wesleyan. He has received doctor of philosophy degrees from Columbia (1917), Union Theological Seminary, New York University, Ohio Wesleyan, and Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa.

The Revival of the Conventual Life in the Church of England in the Nineteenth Century, one of his many books, was published in 1917. Some of the recent works of this well known writer of both books and magazine articles are: Men of Mysteries, Portals of Tomorrow, and The Unemployed Carpenter.

Besides being a reputed international lecturer and author, he is a member of the Board of Foreign Missions of the M. E. Church and director of the Union Theological Seminary. He also is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Sigma Rho, and Phi Delta Theta.

The student body of this university is very fortunate to have the opportunity of hearing Dr. Sockman and everyone should make every effort to be present.

Prop Men's Art Expressed Well In Spring Dance

John Devlin, Stan Smith, Oscar Miller, Frank Purdy, Tennis Huyck and Leonard Shinew have found that cast members in a play are not the only persons who work hard on that play. These boys, who are in charge of the stage settings for "Spring Dance", have constructed among other things, a staircase for the sorority house scene where the action of the play takes place.

"Spring Dance", which is ready for presentation, will be staged just as soon as the new auditorium is completed. Under the direction of Miss Luella Tressman, the cast has been rehearsing on the practice stage of the auditorium.

The play is a collegiate comedy which has been presented and enthusiastically received

the class in play production. The thirteen players in "Spring Dance" are Dick Hagemeyer, Nina Burson, Bettie Myers, Marie Lutz, Mary Alice Hawley, Ruth Flaler, Margaret Koch, James Vann, Oscar Miller, Kermit Long, Thomas Gluvna, Marlowe Witt, and Margaret Zaugg.

During the mid-semester recess there were, conservatively saying, about 75 fellows who either because of jobs here, or the long distance to their homes, or because they live in B. G. were in town all the time. Having nothing much to do, they looked around town Friday and Saturday for something to do. It was discouraging to see many loafing up and down the streets for want of some recreation and seeing many gathered in pool halls or drug store corners for the same reason.

Why didn't they come out to the campus and play on the unused gym, or in the waiting hand ball courts? They couldn't, because the big building was locked tighter than a bank vault!

We don't know who closes up the gym on short holidays like these and don't especially care. We only see the gym standing idle while a good number of students have to just "lay around", starved for a little athletic recreation.

The News wishes to join the scores of fellows who for various reasons remain in town during these short vacations, in asking that the gym be left open on two or three day recesses. We know the expense

Defeat Ashland 45-44 But Drop 38-34 Game To Otterbein Five

A rejuvenated Ashland College cage team, the door mats of the Ohio Conference, almost caused a major upset in Ohio basketball circles when they fell before Bowling Green 45 to 44 last Friday after the Falcons had staged a spirited last minute rally climaxed by the game-winning bucket of "Duff" Madaras.

Over confident and ill at ease in a small gym, the Falcons saw Ashland take the game into their own hands effectively enough to hold a 20 to 12 lead at the half and a 13 point margin at one point in the second half. It was the accuracy of "Big Jim" Zechman that saved the cause, for the mammoth forward hooped the leather for 19 points in the last half to gradually close the gap and help set the stage for Madaras' winning goal.

The close victory was expected to put new fight into the Falcon camp since they learned that Capital had been beaten, but Otterbein was to blast their hopes the next night.

Team Shades Ashland

A sullen tone mingled in with the gay excitement of returning students Monday when they heard that Bowling Green's Falcons had fallen before Otterbein College Saturday night 38 to 34 and out of the conference running as well.

Bee Gee's old road jinx as well as the referee's foul whistle which has haunted the Falcons all season, were at the game in full regalia, and the orange and brown, easily the better team, took it on the chin again.

Zechman, Madaras, and Bishop were the Falcon warriors evicted from the courts, and their absence at the crucial moments of the game proved the flocks' downfall.

The fracas was closely fought with the lead changing hands and being tied twenty times. Otterbein held a 22 to 20 lead at the half, but the game was decided only in the closing minutes.

Dwight Balenger, the Card's 6' 5" center, added six charity tosses to his four field goals to garner high point honors with 14 points while Bishop's nine counters were second high.

He was educated in France and in England and has shown throughout his life an eclectic interest. He has written extensively on politics, literature, and music and speaks English fluently.

Y. W. C. A. Sponsors All-Campus Festival

The Y. W. C. A. is sponsoring an all-campus festival built on a foreign scheme on Feb. 17. Dancing, both social for everyone and folk, lead by Dr. Swanson for all interested, will help fill the evening's program. One of the interesting features of the decorations is to be group displays of articles from these foreign countries.

Since everyone likes to eat, a side-walk cafe will serve a really home cooked meal from one of these countries. Girls who aid in this festival will carry out a costuming scheme as far as possible. And, of course, no such an affair would be complete without souvenirs, so each person will receive one at the door.

Come and join in the fun Feb. 17 in the new Reception Hall. Ticket sales start this week. Norma Sheer is in charge of tickets and Doris Lane is general chairman. Tickets will be 25 cents.

Exchange

At Toledo University Friday, Feb. 11, at 10:30 a. m. there will be a formal graduation exercise. Twenty-four candidates are receiving degrees at this third mid-year commencement. The University announces that this class is the largest group to be graduated at a mid-year exercise.

Is it possible that Bowling Green University retains students longer due to the fact that those graduating at mid-year terms do not have a formal exercise until the following June, and therefore there is a tendency to take extra work and continue the second semester until the regular formal exercises?

By Rawbaw

Well here we are in with another school year facing us. If the shadows of the last six weeks of the old semester are still with us we are probably resolving to skip no more classes, have daily preparations in on time, keep our note books up, not get behind in lab., and write our own theme papers instead of borrowing some one elses. Then too there is the problem of how to squeeze a few more social activities in on a little less budget; how to make the wardrobe do another semester; climaxed by a firm resolve not to sleep in classes.

Certainly these remarks would have been more appropriate at the end of the semester but this is only a week and a half late and that is not so bad for the Bee Gee News.

By the way have you had the experience of having your professors pile on enough assignments already to keep you busy for the first six weeks. Well I have, but it doesn't bother me a great deal. I don't care who the instructor is; I am a great deal like a Government mule. I will work only so hard and when I am indisposed that is not so very hard either.

Have you ever noticed the absence of applause between numbers at a dance? Not only would a little hand clapping encourage the orchestra but it might be a bit of common courtesy or etiquette. Coming from the brush as I have, I am a poor one to talk about etiquette, but I wonder if some of the girls here realize it is their place to take the initiative in greeting masculine classmates and if some of the boys realize better manners would not have you flip a cigarette past a girl's nose to the grass on her side of the sidewalk. Courtesy too, I suppose would have a man hold open the door for a woman, but for two days now I have tried that in the lower floor of the library just in time for the twenty or thirty girls from one of the English classes to file through. I am quitting. I came here to learn how to be a teacher and not a doorman at a harem.

Listen, if you think the column rambles this time you ought to see one of the book reports I am going to hand in for English.

To Hold N-W Ohio Band Festival Here

The Northwestern Ohio High School Band Festival will be held at Bowling Green University on Saturday, March 5. The band will be composed of selected players from all high schools of the district. This year the band will divide and form two symphonic bands. The bands will practice Saturday morning and afternoon and in evening will present their public concert in the new auditorium.

Guest conductors for the event will be Ralph E. Rush of Cleveland, and Arthur L. Williams of Oberlin College.

The Varsity Quartette, under the direction of Prof. Fauley, is rapidly progressing. In addition to regular practice they are making appearances nearly every week. On Feb. 15 they will sing at Deshler and Dunbridge for the Institutes which are to be held there.

Edward Taylor was recently elected manager of the Boys' Glee Club to fill the vacancy left by Carl Koch who resigned. Rex Moorhead was elected to fill Taylor's former position as librarian.

Wittenberg Five Here Friday

League Leader's Record Gives Them Edge Over Flock

Wittenberg's high flying Lutheran's, in second place in the Ohio Conference and boasting victories over several Buckeye Loop schools, will attempt to be the first invader to defeat B. G. on its home floor this season when they come to Bowling Green Friday night for an important conference tilt. With them is Frank Shannon, third high scorer in the Ohio Conference and several other net swishers who have aided the team in piling up scores of 72, 62, and 73 in recent games.

Not including this week's games, Wittenberg has won twelve out of 18 starts, four of their defeats coming on their Atlantic Coast trip at the hands of major eastern colleges.

By virtue of their enviable record especially against Ohio colleges, the Lutherans are decided favorites to send the Falcons into a tail dive Friday, but an entirely different attitude was prevailing in the Falcon camp. Though realizing the ability of their opponents, the Landismen, always strong on their home floor, are pointing to the fracas in much the same determined manner as they did for the Cap. encounter.

Hardly anything would do more to raise the prestige of the Falcons in Ohio college circles than a win over Wittenberg, and to achieve this the team will have to be in peak form.

The impending battle will no doubt draw an overflow crowd and wise fans are expected to come early for good seats. The game will start at 8:15 with a preliminary slated for 7:00.

Below is Wittenberg's conference record. It does not include games this week.

Wittenberg 50, Marietta 42
 Wittenberg 43, Findlay 36
 Wittenberg 72, Muskingum 30
 Wittenberg 62, Denison 32
 Wittenberg 73, O. N. U. 39

Wittenberg Coach

COACH WM. STOBBS

Springfield, O.—T. William Stobbs, coach of football, basketball and baseball at Wittenberg College since 1929, is the rugged, old-time type of coach. No tea-table talk for him, when it comes to sports.

He teaches sports at Wittenberg, not calisthenics. He expects other forms of exercise to keep his men in condition; from these he expects excellence in competitive performance.

His basketball team this year is Wittenberg's best for some years, but in high school coaching he had three teams in state tournaments, one of which lost in the finals.

first tournament was held last year, and several fine boxers were discovered.

The gate receipts this year will be used to purchase a boxing ring and mats.

National collegiate rules will be followed in all bouts, and the following divisions have been set up:

Bantam—115 pounds
 Feather—125 pounds
 Lightweight—135 pounds
 Welter—145 pounds
 Senior Welter—155 pounds
 Middleweight—165 pounds
 Light Heavyweight—175 pounds
 Heavyweight—176 lbs. or over

The fighters will use 12 oz. gloves and winners in each division will be awarded medals. There will be a three weeks training period before the bouts. Every entry should sign up on the bulletin board in the P. E. building and secure punching bag, jumping ropes, gloves, and medicine balls from the stock room.

SPORT SHAVINGS

BY BOB BARON

The Falcons deserve a bouquet for the way they performed at Capital Saturday night. They went into the game with due respect for their opponent's ability, yet they were confident that they had the stuff to win. In doing so they proved that there was no such thing as their jinx. "Jinx" to them was just a synonym for erratic playing, and even if the Falcons may have played erratically on their conference trips they made up for it Saturday.

Not only does the team come in for a pat on the back but also do all those loyal Falcon followers, about twenty-five of them, who traveled the 125 miles to Columbus and probably did as much toward winning the game with their moral support as did the players.

Zech Among High Scorers

Although we're certain that Nick Frascella, Wooster's scoring ace, is the leading Ohio Conference sharp shooter, "Big Jim" Zechman's 94 points places him among the high ten scorers of the loop.

Bishop Lauded

It might be too early to say anything about mythical all-conference teams, but when the time comes we're expecting to see the name of Harold Bishop among those in guard positions. Several of Bishop's opponents have praised his work and other conference coaches have looked on his play with envy. Even though he is only a sophomore his cool, heady play is one of the most important factors in the unified Falcon attack and he is usually assigned the task of guarding potential high scoring opponents.

It's Coop Who Gets The Ball

When you see the Falcons play again watch the backboard work of the team and notice how often Bill Cooper, Coach Landis' dependable center, comes down with the ball. Cooper combines his 6' 2" of height with a powerful spring that sends him up into the ether above most of his opponents. His control of back board has helped the Falcons greatly this year.

We Pick Wittenberg

Although we've stuck out our necks so much on predictions this year that we feel like Thanksgiving turkeys, we're going on the record again as picking Wittenberg Friday. The Lutherans have too much power for the Falcons.

Enter, Mr. Frontz

The Sports department was pleased this week to add another writer and commentator to its ranks in the person of John "Scoop" Frontz. Frontz comes to the News after years with the New York Times. He had decided to completely forget journalism while at college, but repeated requests by the editors finally won him over. Frontz has frequently covered events in high athletic circles and worked side by side with such sport writers as Davis Walsh, Joe Williams, Grantland Rice, Pat Robinson and others.

At present the News is dic-

Tracksters Lose To Fine Ypsi Team

Last Saturday afternoon the Bowling Green track team inaugurated the 1938 indoor season, meeting the powerful Michigan State Normal team at Ann Arbor.

After the afternoon proceedings had been recorded the score read 91 to 4, in favor of the Michigan school. Bowling Green was able to take only four places in the entire meet.

Following are the men who placed for Bee Gee: Klenner, in the shot, Glover in the 880, Rozelle in the mile, and Gernert in the high hurdles.

Although Bowling Green placed only four men and scored only four points, the team as a whole made as good a showing as could be expected. Some of the men have just started working, and then we should

FALCONS DEFEAT BLUFFTON 49-36

Although they had difficulty in building up a sizeable lead in the first half, a superior Falcon cage team returned in the second period to hit the hoop with regularity and defeat a scrappy team from Bluffton College 49 to 30 in a game played here last Wednesday.

Jim Zechman's 22 points led the scoring while Bishop contributed 10. Forward West's 8 points paced the Beaver's tallying.

It was the ninth victory in 11 starts for the orange.

Orange Stave Off Late Rallies To Snatch Sweet Victory

Going into the game with little more attributed them by sport writers than determination, B. G. University's Falcons showed the full meaning of the word when they fought, passed, and shot their way to a resounding 55 to 48 victory over Capital University Saturday night in Loy gymnasium, Columbus.

With a do-or-die attitude behind them the Fighting Orange literally swept the high stepping Lutherans off their feet to post a 32 to 22 lead at the half. The spirited first half drive saw "Duff" Madaras in the leading role as the big forward tossed in five field goals and a free throw. He went out on personals at the start of the second half and Zechman then wound up with B. G.'s scoring honors with 15 points.

Two spirited rallies by the Lutheran's in the second period fell short, and B. G. coasted to victory in the closing minutes on fouls committed by the then desperate Cap. players.

Besides Madaras, Cooper was sent to the showers with four personals, while Burkey & Helmich of the Cap. five were lost the same way. When Cooper left the game Coach Landis sent in Glen Smith, and the big boy responded with the nicest game of his college career. His backboard work, passing, and guarding were of stellar variety.

Paul Weaver, spectacular sophomore forward of the Lutheran team, copped scoring honors for the evening with 22 points, but this team-mate, Ray Heischman, was held to 9 markers by Bishop's close guarding.

Pat Cordisco and Dick Wilke, who scored 11 and 8 points respectively, exemplified the fight and determination of the whole team while Cooper's backboard work was outstanding. Mike Kormazis also saw short service in the fray.

Last week saw several changes in the Falcon scoring column, but "Big Jim" Zechman continued to lead his team mates by a considerable margin. The big forward added 37 points to his total last week against Bluffton and Capital.

Harold Bishop, contented in the past to feed the ball to others, decided to do a little net work of his own last week and so scored 15 points to go into a tie with Bill Cooper for third place.

ALL CAMPUS SWEET HEART SWING . .

An "All-campus Sweetheart Swing" is being sponsored by the Five Sisters Sorority on Saturday February twelfth. The pledges are making all arrangements and we have heard of some brilliant ideas. Each number on the dance program will be named after famous lovers in history. Traditional hearts and arrows and cupids will be featured in the decorations, and the orchestra will be framed by a huge valentine. Wayne Williams is playing for the dance, which will be held in the Men's Gym. Admission is by "Ac" books.

JR-SENIOR PROM A SUCCESS . .

From all campus organizations come orchids to Ray Pearl and his Sunset music for helping to make the Junior-Senior Prom the most successful social event of the year. The Reception Hall, simply decorated with Junior-Senior motifs, was a fitting background for the array of stunning gowns. Most of the girls wore wrist corsages or flowers in their hair. One hundred couples attended the formal and enjoyed especially the vocalists and novelty numbers which Ray Pearl featured. Many pictures for the key were taken by Tom Recker. What we want to know is why Dale Kuhlman, president of the Senior class blushed so when his picture was being taken. Guests at the Prom were Pres. and Mrs. R. E. Offenbauer, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Williams, Dean Maude F. Sharp, Dean and Mrs. W. C. Jordan, Dr. C. S. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Zaugg, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Landis, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Slater, Mr. Meyers, Miss Olive M. Cummings and Mrs. G. W. Beattie.

DORM FORMALS . .

Both Williams Hall and Shatzel Hall girls are deep in arrangements for their formal dances. The Shatzel Hall Formal, scheduled for Feb. 19, is being planned by the House chairman and assisting committee members. Williams Hall girls have booked Wayne Williams for the evening, and the decorations they say are going Hawaiian. Jane DeBoer is heading the decoration committee; assisting her are Marjorie Swarat, Louise Deeter, and Louise Ault. This formal is scheduled for Feb. 26.

SORORITIES . .

Sororities next week will be initiating pledges at formal dinners or ceremonies. Las Amigas formal initiation will be Feb. 15 at the Woman's Club. Las Amigas pledges were entertained by Miss Wills in her apartment last Saturday evening with a dinner party. Martha Withrow, who has returned to school this semester, is back in the sorority. The Three Kay Sorority is also welcoming an old member, Evelyn Simmons. This sorority is planning their formal initiation, and are thinking, too, of their Founder's Day luncheon which comes on March 12. The Seven Sisters, the Five Sisters and the Skols are also making arrangements for taking in their Freshman pledges. Another rush season for all sororities is at hand, a season filled with theatre parties, get-togethers at the Sorority house, informal groups gathered here and there, hosts of entertainments to usher in the second rush season.

FRATERNITIES . .

Commoners have a smoker scheduled for the near future. At the Delhi House four alumni visited over the week-end, Allen Bishop, Foxy Houlburt, Carl McCulloch, and Howard Berry.

BETA PI THETA . .

Formal initiation of Beta Pi Theta, National French fraternity, was held Saturday Feb. 5, at the Woman's Club at a lovely party given by Miss Florence Baird and Miss Hazel Mercer. After the initiation ceremony over which Loyal Gryting presided, a lunch was served, carrying out the color scheme of purple and gold, the fraternity's colors. On the fireplace was a beautiful bouquet of phlox with purple and gold tapers on either side.

A short program followed with a baritone solo by Max Brillhart accompanied by Marjorie Swartz. The members then joined in the group singing of several French folk songs, concluding with the "Marseilles".

The new members of the organization are Helen Bair, Marian Cunningham, Berniece Dennis, Ruth Dodds, Margaret Ettinger, Dorothy Grund, Angeline Knight, Jane Kuhn, Ruth Richter. Martha Riley was unable to be present because of illness. Miss Grace Tressel was accorded honorary membership. Miss Elzabetta Ruth, Miss Eloise Barthold, and Miss Rachel Conn were welcomed back as alumnae members.
